ARE WEDDED

John Waterhouse to Miss Alexander.

Ceremony Performed at Oakland
California—Elegant Presents and a Deed of Gift.

OAKLAND, Feb. 6.—The wedding of Miss Martha Alexander, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Alexander, and John Waterhouse of Honolulu took place this evening at 8 o'clock at the handsome residence of the bride's parents, corner Sixteenth and Filbert streets. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Charles R. Brown of the First Congregational Church, was witnessed by only the relatives and a few very intimate friends. A large reception was held immediately following the service. The Alexander home was most beautifully decorated for the event. The wide hall was arranged with cut flowers and palms and ferns and clusters of red roses were placed here and there. The reception room was entirely in green, smilax being used. The drawing and dining rooms were in white and lavender. Chinese lanterns lighted the canvas-covered steps and portico.

The ceremony was very simple, but impressive. The bride, who is petite and slender, was charming in her gown of white satin. She wore a veil and carried lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Harriett Kittredge, wore an elegant gown of white with an over-garment of point d'esprit. She carried white blossoms. The bridesmaids were Miss Belle Dickie, a cousin, and the Misses Carmen Moore and Emma Grimwood. They were dressed alike in white liberty silk. Wallace Alexander, the bride's brother, was best man. The reception that followed the ceremony was attended by several hundred guests, including some of the most prominent society people on both sides of the bay.

The bride is a member of Oakland's younger set, and has been very prominent at the different cotillions and other smart affairs held this season. She is extremely popular because of her genial and sweet disposition. Mr. Waterhouse is prominent in the islands, where the Alexanders have extensive interests and where they spend a part of each year. The two families have been intimately acquainted for years and the union is one that is particularly pleasing. The young couple were the recipients of many elegant gifts, chief among which was the deed of an elegant home in Honolulu, a present from the bride's father.

Will of Mrs. Widemann.

On behalf of himself and Henry R. Macfarlane and Frederick W. Macfarlane, John M. Dowsett petitions for probate of the will of Mary Kaumana Widemann.

The Widemann estate comprises real property valued at $10,500, including the homestead at Punahou and personally valued at $250. To a niece and nephew are bequeathed rights in land on Kauai, also $250 cash each. The testator's daughter, Mrs. William Lanz, is left a piece of land on the Ewa side of Punahou street, beginning 585 feet from Beretania avenue and containing 1.884 acres.

Anna Widemann receives a piece of land on the same side of that street, beginning 715 feet from Beretania avenue, containing an equal area.

Personal property, jewelry for the most part, is divided between the sons and daughters and a grandson, Harry Macfarlane.

The testator bequeaths the rest of her property "to those who may be entitled to the same by the laws of the descent of property."

Danger of Colds and La Grippe.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

The Calcutta correspondent of the Times says: The Indian Government arranged to receive half a crore of rupees and has also bought enough silver to coin a crore of new rupees. These operations are expected to meet all present requirements, so that no further coinage is contemplated. The silver was purchased quietly, without disturbing the market.
